

English

Stories By the same author - Roald Dahl

Fiction - Stone Age Boy - Story writing

Poetry - Humorous poems

Using a wider range of conjunctions

Spelling scheme - prefixes dis,in,im

Suffix - ous, ly

Words ending in ture

Synonyms and using a thesaurus

Use grammatical terminology - adjectives, nouns, adverbs, adverbials,

fronted adverbials

Maths

Number, place value and money - Revise placing 2 and 3 digit numbers on an empty number line

Ordering 3 digit numbers

Write amounts in pounds and pence using zero as a place holder

Mental addition and subtraction

Column addition and subtraction

Arithmetic

Science

This term we will be exploring Animals including Humans, specifically Healthy Diet. We will be linking our learning with Design Technology and designing and making our own healthy foods. We will also be linking this with Stone Age diet and how it compares with our modern dietary habits.

Art

Firework art

Cave paintings

Sketching - observational

The Stone Age

Autumn Term 1

Kingfisher
Class

Computing

Explore Scratch, making a sprite move, change sprite and background
Explore adding sound to a program in Scratch, considering the algorithm that is necessary to make this happen

E-Safety - I know how to stay safe when using the internet

Using the internet as a research tool

History

Changes in Britain from the Stone Age to the Iron Age

To gain an overview of the major changes from the Stone Age to The Iron Age

To consider how we know about a historical period without written sources

To research what it might have been like to live in Britain during this period

Music

Sing songs for small scale performance

Play percussion instruments to evoke atmosphere

Understand beat, rhythm and tempo

RE

What is important to me?

Christianity and Judaism

Who am I and what does it mean to be human?

Where do I belong?

PE

The focus this term will be on Invasion Games with our coach and on fundamental, core movements such as balance.

PSHE & SEAL

Uniqueness

Appreciating and celebrating differences

Cultural awareness